Hi Henry,

It was great to hear about how you spend your weekends in England. Here's what I do at the weekend.

On Saturdays, I usually hang out with my friends, Thomas and Jacob. We play football or go running in the park. On Sundays, I often stay in and spend time with my family. We love playing board games. I also relax by watching TV or listening to music.

My best friends are Thomas and Jacob. Thomas is tall with dark brown hair. He's quite intelligent, but he can be impatient at times. Jacob is of medium height with blond hair and glasses.

He's friendly and very talkative.

Last weekend was quite special as I attended my cousin's surprise birthday party. It was fantastic to see all the family members. I had a good time and the atmosphere was great.

Next weekend, I'm going to the cinema with my friends. There's a new superhero film that we all want to see. How about you? Any exciting plans for the upcoming weekend? Write soon.

Take care,
XYZ

Hi everyone!

I came across this contest and I'd like to share my thoughts! My perfect job is to become a doctor. Doctors find out what is wrong with people, then tell them what they need to get better. Sometimes that is medicine and occasionally it is a change in their lifestyles.

Doctors need a lot of qualifications. From school, they need biology, maths and English. They also need a university degree in medicine which takes years to get.

Doctors need to be calm and confident to make their patients feel safe. They also need to be very intelligent to know how to cure different diseases and illnesses.

This is a dream job because helping people get better is the best thing that anyone can do. It's a job that really does save lives.

Can't wait to hear about your dream job too!

Hi Bazeł,

Sorry to hear you're not well. I had a similar problem last month. I had a terrible cold and felt really awful. I had a runny nose and a sore throat.

I tried a few things to help me feel better. I got plenty of rest, I drank herbal tea, and ate warm soup. I also watched funny movies on Netflix. Laughter is the best medicine.

You should do the same. It worked wonders for me, and I'm sure it'll do the same for you. Resting and staying hydrated should help.

However, if that doesn't work, then you should see your doctor. He'll give you professional advice and the right medicine.

Get well soon,
XYZ

Hi everyone!

Today, I'd like to write about a special place in Poland. It's the Royal Castle in Warsaw. It is located in the Old Town next to the Vistula River. It used to be home to the royal families of Poland, but now it's a museum.

Parts of the castle were built in the 14th century. It was made bigger in the 16th and 17th centuries, but it was badly damaged over the years because of different wars. Luckily, it has always been rebuilt. It was finally opened to the public in 1984 and since then it has attracted lots of visitors every year. Visitors can tour the castle, admire the architecture and the paintings and even see a film about the castle on some Sundays.

The Royal Castle is a fantastic place for anyone who is interested in the history of Poland. So, when you're in Warsaw, make sure to check it out!

Don't miss it!

Hi everyone!

I'd like to tell you about a holiday destination. I stayed at the Continental Hotel in Rhodes, Greece. I was there for ten days and I had a fantastic time.

I loved the hotel. My room was at the front and I had an amazing view of the sea and the sandy beach. The food in the restaurant was excellent and all the staff were friendly and helpful.

The only problem was the noise from the nightclub next door. It was very difficult to get to sleep some nights and there wasn't a lot the hotel could do about it.

I would really recommend the Continental Hotel to everyone who likes a beach holiday. It's near the beach and the sea is perfect to swim in.

Talk again in my next post.

Hi Paul,

Let me tell you all about the performance I attended last week. It was a play called The Day Before Tomorrow at the Market Theatre.

I was at the Saturday afternoon performance and it was crowded! The actors gave fantastic performances. I felt like I was a part of what was happening on stage. The play was two hours long, but I was enjoying it so much that it seemed like half an hour. It was such a sad story! The lead actress made me cry at the end. I wasn't the only one as some of the audience still had tears in their eyes when they were leaving. I felt really moved.

I would definitely recommend this play because it was well-acted and very moving. Don't miss it!

All the best,

XYZ

Rozmowa wstępna

Units 1–2 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. I go shopping every week for food and other things for the house. I don't go shopping for clothes very often because I think it's boring.

2. I buy food and things for the house from the big supermarket in the town centre. I get clothes from some of the local shops that are in my neighbourhood or online.

3. I get lots of fruit and vegetables because I try to eat healthily. I like to buy cheap clothes because then I don't worry about getting them dirty. My hobby is music, so I like to buy vinyl records when I have enough money.

4. I like finding something cheap and not having to pay the full price. I don't like the queues in supermarkets. They can be very long, and people are a bit slow at the checkout.

Units 3–4 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. I was staying at a campsite. Then, I went to an island in the middle of a lake. I was with my friends, Sally and Mary.

2. We were on holiday and we wanted to have a picnic.

3. At the beginning, the weather was sunny without a cloud in the sky. Then, it got very dark and it started pouring down. In the end, the clouds went away, and the sun came out again.

4. We were having our picnic when it started to rain. We got soaking wet.

5. We got back in the boat and sailed back. I was very annoyed that the day was so terrible, but relieved to be warm and dry.

Units 5–6 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. The best meal I ever had was spaghetti carbonara in an Italian restaurant in my town.

2. It was at La Scala in the town centre and it was my best friend's birthday.

3. I was with my best friend and three other friends.

4. I had garlic bread as a starter, pasta carbonara as a main course and tiramisu as dessert.

5. The food was delicious, fresh, perfectly prepared and reasonably priced. I can't wait to go back there again.

Units 7–8 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. In hotels you should be polite. You can't make noise, and you must follow check-in and check-out times.

2. In lifts and trains, be polite, let people exit first, and give up seats to those who need them, for example the elderly.

3. No, I haven't been to a campsite. I prefer staying in hotels because they have comfortable beds and private bathrooms.

4. If I owned a seaside hotel, I'd have a nice view, and a swimming pool. I would offer comfortable rooms and a spa for my guests.

Units 9–10 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. We are still creating too much rubbish. Plastics end up in the sea and landfill sites are getting more and more full.

2. We can recycle pizza boxes if we clean them first. We can take old devices and other electrical items to local recycling points. We can return old batteries to the shops where we bought them. They often have special bins to dispose of them.

3. We could have a public campaign to raise awareness about recycling more with advertisements on TV, the radio and in the newspapers. There could be a website with valuable advice and links to other sites. Also, schools could teach pupils what they need to do.

Klucz odpowiedzi

4. If people recycled more, they would feel better about themselves. They would feel that they are really doing something to protect the environment for themselves and the generations that will follow.

Units 11–12 Przykładowe odpowiedzi

1. I think they are popular because, among other things, it is great fun sending out messages, tweets and photos to everyone else.

2. Firstly, we are in contact with our friends and relatives all the time. As a result, we have people to talk to and get advice from. Secondly, they are useful to keep up to date with what is happening in the world. They are often quicker with the news than TV shows or newspapers.

3. To begin with, they can be used to bully people. People use social media to say hurtful things that they would never say in person. Also, people can get addicted to them. They might be on their phones all day and all night and that can lead to illness and isolation.

4. In my opinion, social media are great fun and incredibly useful if used correctly.

Egzaminujący: What do you think would be a suitable present for Ania?

Uczeń: Well, I was thinking about getting her a nice piece of jewellery. Maybe a necklace or a bracelet. She loves accessories so in my opinion, she will like it.

Egzaminujący: Well, I personally think that a book might be a better choice. What do you think?

Uczeń: Actually, she's not into reading. She is mad about fashion so a piece of jewellery would be a perfect choice.

Egzaminujący: OK then. Jewellery can be expensive. How much are you willing to spend?

Uczeń: I was thinking of $30. I think that should be reasonable for a nice necklace or bracelet.

Egzaminujący: Hmm. Are you sure you'll find something in this price range?

Uczeń: Well, it shouldn't be a problem especially if we pool together.

Egzaminujący: You're right. Where do you think we should look for it?

Uczeń: I think a local jeweller would be a good option. They usually have a wide range of products and reasonable prices, much lower than in the shopping mall.

Egzaminujący: If you say so. When can we go?

Uczeń: How about Saturday afternoon? We don't have to go to school so we'll have a lot of time.

Egzaminujący: Saturday is a busy shopping day, and shops might be crowded. Have you considered going on a weekday?

Uczeń: I know what you mean, but with our busy timetables, Saturday will be the most suitable day for both of us.

Egzaminujący: All right then. See you on Saturday.

The photo shows young people sitting in the park on the grass. They are eating and probably talking. Next to the boy on the right, there is a ball, so maybe they are planning to play or have just finished playing. They seem to be having fun.

Odpowiedzi na pytania:

1 They might have chosen to spend time this way because being in the park allows them to relax and enjoy time outdoors. What's more, the weather is beautiful so they can do some sport in the fresh air.

2 I think, having friends is very important because you don't feel lonely. You have someone to talk to, share your secrets with, and ask for advice. A friend will always support you and help. You can have fun with your friends.

3 I met my best friend at school. We were in the same class. One day our English teacher told us to prepare a presentation and we were in the same group. We started talking and discovered that we had a lot in common. We've been best friends ever since.

If I wanted to invite my friends to celebrate passing my exam, I would definitely choose a pizza place. Pizza places usually have a relaxed and casual atmosphere, which makes them a comfortable place to celebrate with friends. We can enjoy good food. They offer a variety of pizza choices so everybody can choose something they like. Finally, they're cheaper than a restaurant.

I'd reject a café as they have limited food options. Not everyone likes cakes and eats sweets. Cafes are often very small and there might be not enough space for all of us.

I wouldn't go for a restaurant as it is the most expensive option. They are also very formal and we wouldn't feel comfortable in such a place. It would be more suitable for a dinner with a family.

Odpowiedzi na pytania:

1 There are a lot of pros to eating out. Eating out is convenient, especially when you don't have time to cook or prefer not to. You can try out new dishes and spend time with family or friends. However, it is more expensive than eating at home and it may be less healthy. When you cook at home, you know what you eat.

2 Well, it depends on what you like. You can throw a party, a small or a big one. You can do something nice for yourself like a day at a spa or going shopping. You can also enjoy a relaxing day or set a new goal to achieve.

Uczeń: Hey! We need to talk about our holidays. What do you think would be a good time for all of us? How about the beginning of July?

Egzaminujący: Hi! Well, I was thinking of late July or early August. What do you think?

Uczeń: That sounds good to me! So two weeks at the end of July. How will we get there? I'm thinking about using a car because it's more flexible, and we can take as much luggage as we need. What do you think about that choice?

Egzaminujący: That's true, but it'll also be the most expensive option. How about taking a train or even a bus?

Uczeń: You have a point there. I haven't thought about it. Maybe we should discuss it with the others.

Egzaminujący: Definitely! What are we going to do there? It would be great to plan some exciting things to do together.

Uczeń: Absolutely! I was thinking of hiking and maybe even trying some water sports. I believe it should be a mix of relaxation and adventure. What do you think?

Egzaminujący: Adventure sounds fun, but what about those who might prefer a more relaxed holiday?

Uczeń: They can lie on the beach. We don't have to do everything together. We'll make sure there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Egzaminujący: Sounds great. Lastly, let's discuss accommodation. Where shall we stay?

Uczeń: I was considering renting an apartment. We can all stay together, which would be a lot of fun and it's fairly cheap. What do you think?

Egzaminujący: I'd prefer a hotel with a swimming pool.

Uczeń: If we find one at a reasonable price, why not?

Egzaminujący: Great. It seems like we have a plan.

Opis ilustracji:

In the picture, we can see a group of people on the beach. They are holding bags and some of them are wearing protective gloves. People are carefully picking up rubbish, such as plastic bottles, paper, and other waste. In the background, we can see more people on the beach but they don't seem to be engaged in the activity. They are probably tourists who are just walking.

Odpowiedzi na pytania:

1 I think they will probably continue collecting rubbish and later they might take the rubbish to a special place. They could also take a moment to appreciate a nice, clean beach or encourage others to join them.

2 There are a lot of ways in which individuals can keep the environment clean. First of all, we should sort out rubbish. We should reduce the use of disposable containers. When we go shopping, we can take reusable shopping bags with us. We can also save water and electricity in our homes. Whenever it is possible, use public transport or a bike instead of driving a car, too.

3 Last month I took part in a tree-planting event in my community. It was organised to make more green spaces and promote environmental awareness. We planted a variety of trees in a local park. A lot of people took part in it. It was a wonderful day.

The visual material presents three types of entertainment. I believe going to the cinema would be the best choice. Firstly, the cinema offers a wide variety of movies, so there's something for everyone's taste. Whether you're into action, comedy, or drama, we can find a film that suits us all. Secondly, I love the atmosphere of the cinema. We can enjoy the movie together and have time for a chat before or after. If we choose an English movie, we can practise our English skills.

I'd reject a circus as it might not appeal to everyone and it's a good choice for children but not for teenagers. Moreover, there isn't a circus in the area where I live.

I'd eliminate a classical music concert because there is a formal atmosphere, and I don't know any teenagers who appreciate such music. Furthermore, the tickets would be very expensive.

Odpowiedzi na pytania:

1 In my point of view, the most popular forms of entertainment among teenagers often include social media, video games, and music. Social media platforms like Instagram, Snapchat, and TikTok are widely used by teens to connect with friends or share content. Playing video games can be relaxing for young people. It is the same with listening to music.

2 Personally, I prefer watching a film at the cinema. There's a special atmosphere. I can see everything on a big screen, the quality of sound is much better as well. I can go there with my friends and see the latest film.

Unit 1

Speaker 1: My job is really tiring. I start at 8 in the morning and finish 12 hours later. When I get home, I just grab a sandwich and watch TV. Not for long, though, as I need to get to bed early. Luckily, I only work for four days a week, so I have a nice, long weekend to hang out with all my friends.

Speaker 2: I start doing chores as soon as I get back from college. I come from a big family and my parents work hard so we all help when we can. That's why I make dinner on the nights when my Mum and Dad are working late.

Speaker 3: I meet my friends every night when work finishes. We all have jobs in the city centre, so we go for coffee or go shopping at the mall. They're great friends and we go round to each other's house at the weekend, too.

Speaker 4: I can't stand being in the house on my own, so I'm very active in my free time. In the winter, I love going to the gym or ice-skating, but in the summer, I like riding my bike and playing tennis at the local leisure centre. I get to meet people and get fit at the same time.

Unit 2

1 I don't go clothes shopping that much because I don't earn a lot of money. There are some cheap shops in my town, and I get some clothes there. I love the sales, though. I save up a lot of my money to buy a few designer pieces when they are really cheap.

2 I hated going shopping when I was young. My mum used to take me to all the local shops. We bought everything on Saturdays as the shops used to close on Sundays. Nowadays, I get all my groceries after work on a Friday because the supermarket is really quiet then.

3 I had an interview at 10:30 in the morning and early that day, about half eight, I was getting ready when I saw that my good dress was ripped. I ran out to the clothes shop, but it was closed so I waited for it to open at 9:30. I bought the first dress I saw and made it to the interview on time. I didn't get the job, though.

4 I absolutely love shopping. It is a fun and exciting activity, but the most important aspect for me is that I can find exactly what I'm looking for and get the best deals. I love buying everything from clothes to groceries. It's my favourite pastime.

5 I really don't enjoy shopping at all. It is a waste of time for me. I prefer spending my time doing something else. I hate the crowds and the choice is too big. But my girlfriend always wants me to go with her and it stresses me out.

6 Black Friday is a very popular day for shopping. It happens on the day after Thanksgiving, which is always on the fourth

Thursday in November. Shops offer big discounts and sales on this day. People often wake up early and stand in long queues to get the best deals. They can spend lots of money on different things. For some, it's the best day of the year; for others a nightmare.

Unit 3

Interviewer: On the show tonight, we have Tom Farmer. Tom found himself trapped in his car in the middle of a blizzard. Tom, how did it all start?

Tom: Well, it was last week, and I was working at one of the hotels in the mountains. It was Friday night and I decided to get back home in my car. I knew that a storm was coming, but I thought I could get back before it got too bad.

Interviewer: That didn't happen, though.

Tom: No, it didn't. I was driving along, and the snow was getting worse. It got so bad that I had to stop the car. I tried calling my family from my smartphone but there was no signal. I wasn't worried as I expected the blizzard to blow over.

Interviewer: But it didn't stop, did it?

Tom: No. It carried on. I kept trying with my phone, but after a while it didn't have any battery. It was getting late, so I decided to get some sleep. I woke up in the morning and found that the car was covered in snow, and, worse than that, it wasn't working.

Interviewer: So how long were you there for?

Tom: I was there two days. The authorities were stopping anyone using the road, because it was too dangerous, so nothing passed by. On the second day, the blizzard stopped and luckily a snow plough that was clearing the road spotted me.

Interviewer: How did you feel?

Tom: I had some chocolate and water in the car, so I wasn't hungry or thirsty, but I was very relieved that someone found me.

Interviewer: Tom, Thank you.

Tom: Thank you.

Unit 4

Once you get an interview, it is essential that you prepare well for it. The first thing to think about is what type of interview it is. Is it a telephone interview, a video call interview or will it be face-to-face? A face-to-face interview is the most common. But remember that after a telephone interview or a video call interview you will have to do a face-to-face interview anyway. Think about how you are going to get to the interview because you want to arrive on time. Check bus or train timetables and have another way of getting there if something goes wrong, like the taxi you booked never arrives. It's better to arrive early than late or, at the very worst, not at all. Do some research into the company and if possible into the people who will interview you. Think about the type of questions they will ask and prepare your answers. Read the job advertisement carefully and see exactly what the company is looking for. Make sure you have examples of how you fit the job requirements. Have a light dinner the night before and get an early night. A good night's sleep is important to look fresh and relaxed for the interview. Choose appropriate clothes and set them out ready for getting dressed in the morning. Finally, make sure you set your alarm to wake you up in time. That's all the preparation done. So now all you have to do is go to the interview, impress the interviewers and get that job.

Good luck!

Unit 5

For this recipe, you will need two eggs, milk, salt and pepper, and 10 grams of cheddar cheese. First of all, crack the eggs into a mixing bowl, add a little salt and pepper and some milk – not too much though, just a splash – and stir everything well. Heat a frying pan on a medium heat and add some cooking oil. You can also use some butter if you have any. While the pan is getting hot, grate the cheese and add to the egg mixture, stirring well. Pour the mixture into the frying pan. Cook until the mixture is no longer runny. Lift the omelette to check if the bottom side is golden brown, then flip it and cook the other side. When both sides are golden brown, serve and enjoy!

Unit 6

1 I was running in the park next to my house when I fell over. I tried to get up, but it was really painful. Luckily, there was a doctor passing by at that moment and he said that I had a sprained ankle. He helped me get back home and told me to rest it for a few days. It's fine now.

2 My cousin asked me to help him tidy up his garage. He doesn't have a car, so he keeps the junk from his house there. We worked all morning until I hit my head on a shelf. It really hurt. I didn't cut it, but there's a big bump there now.

3 I've had this cold since the weekend. It started with a runny nose and a sore throat, but I think it's getting worse. I've been taking tablets, but they're not helping much. If I get a temperature, I'll take the day off work and see the doctor.

4 I went to the doctor with a bad cough. He said it was a chest infection. I've been taking antibiotics for a few days. They didn't seem to do anything to begin with, but I'm feeling a lot better now. I have to take all of the tablets, though, to really get better.

Unit 7

Good morning and welcome to Fernwood Holiday Park. Before we announce the activities for the day, we want to remind our guests about some of the camp's rules. First of all, do not use your car to drive around the holiday park. Guests should only use their cars when they are arriving at the campsite or leaving it. Also, please do not park your car too near the next caravan.

Fernwood Holiday Park allows dogs, but dog owners are responsible for their dog's behaviour. Keep them on their leads at all times and don't let them upset other campers with their barking. This is a quiet holiday park at night, so we ask our guests not to make any noise after 10:30 at night. Be careful you don't play loud music and try to close car doors and caravan doors quietly.

Finally, for campers with small children, please make sure they do not disturb other guests and also keep them away from the lake. Always know where young children are and what they are doing. There is a full list of camp rules and regulations available in the manager's office. Now let's move on to our schedule of fun activities for the day ...

Unit 8

1 The Amazon Rainforest in South America is huge. In fact, it's the biggest rainforest in the world. It is mostly in Brazil, but parts of it are in nine more countries. It is home to 10% of all the animal species in the world and 20% of all bird species. That is why this rainforest must be protected at all costs.

2 Niagara Falls is located on the border of the USA and Canada. This amazing sight is actually three waterfalls: American Falls, Bridal Veil Falls and Canadian Falls, which is also known as the Horseshoe Falls. Around 30 million people visit the falls every year, but it's not just a tourist attraction. The water here has been used for over 100 years to create electricity.

3 The Alps is a series of mountains that stretch 1,200 kilometres across eight countries in Europe. It has over a hundred mountains that are over 4,000 metres tall. These mountains are particularly popular with skiers because they have lots of snow. In winter, it becomes the number one tourist destination in all Europe just because of all that snow.

4 The Grand Canyon in the USA is more than 400 km long, and it's about 1.6 km deep. Some places are even 29 km wide. The Colorado River which is at the bottom of the canyon adds to the shape of the place. Millions of people visit this site every year. You can see many different kinds of animals there, for example, mountain lions, deer, and many kinds of birds.

5 Victoria Falls is a waterfall in southern Africa. It is between Zambia and Zimbabwe. The water falls 108 metres down. It is one of the largest and most beautiful waterfalls in the world. It has a width of 1,708 metres. The noise from the falling water can be heard from 40 kilometres away. In 1855, David Livingstone was the first European to see this place.

Unit 9

1 They stopped hunting the North Atlantic right whale over 65 years ago because it had almost totally vanished from the oceans. Even sadder is the fact that it is called the right whale because it was easy to catch and kill it and it didn't sink to the bottom of the sea like other whales.

2 Some hunting of polar bears is allowed as they are a part of native peoples' cultures, but climate change is the main threat to this incredible animal. As the temperature rises, the sea ice it lives and hunts on melts. It also means that more humans are moving into its habitat and that won't end well for the polar bear.

3 With an incredible 98.3% of our DNA, gorillas are one of our closest cousins in the animal kingdom. That doesn't mean, though, that they aren't in danger from us. Recent reports suggest that they could vanish from some areas of Africa within the next few years.

4 It's not all bad news. 20 years ago, there were only about 2,500 black rhinos left in the wild. Now, thanks to conservation projects, there are over 5,000 of them. Despite that success, the black rhino is still an endangered species and more help is needed to stop hunters illegally killing this amazing animal.

Unit 10

1 I worked as a porter in a hotel when I left college. It was really hard work and boring, too. I'm a hotel receptionist now. I'm having a great time meeting new faces every day and not having to carry anyone's bags. I used to be so tired at the end of my shift, but not anymore!

2 I went on a short city break to Madrid. The hotel I stayed at had lots of facilities. There was a gym in the basement where I worked out and a swimming pool, but I didn't have any time for that. The wake-up call was really useful on the last day. I was so tired from all the sightseeing I could have slept through the alarm!

3 It seemed a good hotel when we booked online, but it wasn't. To begin with, the hotel looked really old-fashioned and dirty. I'm sure the online pics were of a different hotel. The waiter in the restaurant was very slow and rude, but at least the food was tasty. Overall, this hotel is not recommended at all!

4 Hi, I'm Sara. I'm on holiday with my family. Our hotel is called The Blue Dolphin. It's got a swimming pool and it's near the beach. We're not eating at the hotel because we're eating at the beach restaurant. It's fantastic! My brother's playing tennis today, but I'm not doing any sport. I'm just sitting here and reading a book!

5 I went to a hotel in Spain for a week. It was good, but the weather was terrible. It rained every day and it was cold. The hotel was very big and the room was clean, but there wasn't any Wi-Fi. There were three swimming pools, but they were too cold to use. The food was OK, but there wasn't any fruit or vegetables.

Unit 11

Welcome to our weekly entertainment round-up. First off this week, we have exciting news for theatre fans. Coming soon to the Market Theatre is a play that has won lots of awards. It's by local writer Kate Clovelly and it's called The Day Before Tomorrow. It opens on 18th July and you have almost a month to see the play as the last night is 15th August. For anyone interested, the cost of tickets for adults is just £15 each and the good news is that all children get in free. Tickets are now available online or you can just pop along to the theatre and buy them there. It's sure to be popular so book your tickets now.

Unit 12

1 I always buy the latest antivirus program and I update it all the time. My passwords are really complex with letters, numbers and symbols. Also, if I'm not sure that a website is 100% safe, I don't click on it at all. It's better to be safe than sorry.

2 I bought a new laptop recently and it comes with its own antivirus program. It's doing a good job as I haven't had any viruses so far. To be honest, after paying for the laptop, I didn't have enough money to buy any more software anyway.

3 At one point, I had fifteen different passwords and I was always mixing them up. In the end, I stopped using them all and chose one good one with lots of different characters. There's no way a hacker will work out that password!

4 I had the best passwords I could think of, but my bank account was still hacked. I have no idea how they found out my password and neither does the bank. At least the bank accepted responsibility and paid me back all the money I'd lost.
