Skills Practice 3 - Tapescripts

Module 1

Exs 3 & 4 p. 2

My sister Nina always wears casual clothes. She usually wears jeans and a T-shirt or jumper. She almost never wears bright colours. She prefers black, white or grey. She never wears trainers because she says they are ugly! Instead, she always wears flat shoes or sandals. I don't agree with her, though. I love my trainers. Nina is a lot taller than I am. I wish I could borrow her clothes, but they are too big for me!

Skills Practice 1

Ex. 1 p. 4

Girl: These are my friends. The girl with long curly hair is Paula and the girl standing next to her is Becky.
Boy: Do you mean the one with short fair hair?
Girl: No, Becky hasn't got fair hair. Come on, Jack. The girl with short fair hair is me!
Boy: Oh, you're right. I didn't recognise you!

Module 2

Exs 3 & 4 p. 6

Hilary: Hi, Angie. Oh, what's wrong?
Angie: Oh, where to begin? Yesterday, my sister Becky and I went to the gym.
Hilary: Did you go to the new one, the Power Gym?
Angie: No. We went to the one near my house, the Mega Gym.

Hilary: Oh, yes. I know it. Was it your first time?

Angie: Yes, it was. Anyway. As I said, yesterday Becky and I went to the gym for the first time. Once we got there, Becky went to an aerobics class. I didn't want to go. I think aerobics is boring! So, I decided to try to lift some weights. But, guess what happened to me!

Hilary: What?

Angie: I lifted the first weight and pulled a muscle in my left arm! It really hurt! Now I can't use my arm at all! I went to the doctor today and he told me that I should rest it for a few days.

Hilary: Oh, you poor thing!

- Woman: When babies and small children have got a temperature, make sure you don't put a lot of clothes on them. Keep them cool and give them lots of water. Call a doctor if their temperature reaches 40°C.
- Boy: It was a terrible night. It rained for hours and the water started coming into the house through the windows and doors. We all went upstairs and in the morning a search party rescued us from the roof.

Ex. 2 p. 8

- Woman: Hello, Amy. What can I do for you?

Woman: Well, Julie has got a temperature of 39°C.

- Woman: So, Mr Stephens, did you see the criminals' faces?
Man: No, Officer Jones, there was nobody here when I got home. They took my TV, my laptop and my wife's jewellery. Luckily, I had my wallet and keys with me.
Woman: Was there anyone else in the house?
Man: No. My wife and kids were at the cinema.
- Girl: When I was younger, I had lots of problems at home. I used to bully other children at school to make me feel better. Then one day I realised that making other people feel bad didn't solve my problems. I talked to my teachers and they helped me find other ways to deal with my problems.

Module 7

Ex. 4 p. 26 & Ex. 5 p. 27

Good afternoon! My name's Linda Smith and today on 'Movie Madness' we are going to review an old science fiction film – 'E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial'.

'E.T.' was directed by Steven Spielberg. Henry Thomas stars as Elliott, a lonely boy living with his mother, his older brother and younger sister.

The story begins when Elliott finds an alien that was left behind on Earth by his spaceship. The alien, called E.T., cannot survive on earth and Elliott must help him find a way to communicate with his spaceship.

'E.T.' was really popular when it first came out in 1982. Many people went to see it. It is very entertaining and gives a positive message about childhood, friendship and kindness. It is definitely a must-see.

Skills Practice 7

1. Boy: I like programmes about real life. I like to know what's happening in other countries as well as my own. It's often sad or depressing, but I think we need to understand what's going on around the world.
2. Boy: Hi, Julie! How was the film last night?
Girl: It was great! The actors were so funny! It's a shame you couldn't come.
Boy: I know, but I always have my music lesson on Thursday evening.
3. Girl: I think Christian Bale is amazing. He's tall with dark hair and he's great at his job. My favourite one of his films is

'Batman Begins' where he stars as Batman.

Ex. 2 p. 28

2 Woman: Welcome to our music group, Leon. Which instrument do you play?

Boy: The trumpet, Mrs Barlow.

Woman: That's excellent! We need a trumpet player. Now, you probably know most of the music group already. That's Helen over there playing the flute.

Boy: Oh, yes. She's in my Science class. And is that Marie playing the violin?

Woman: No, that's her sister Jenny. Marie plays the sitar – it's a traditional instrument from Asia.

Boy: Wow, that's cool. Who is playing the bass drum?

Woman: That's Sara. She's in Year 11 so you probably don't know her.

Boy: No, I don't. But I know Claire, she's my sister's best friend. What's she playing?

Man: Oh, I see. Well, perhaps I'll go to the 2nd floor then.

2 Where's Pam's house?

Girl: Are you coming to my party on Friday?

Boy: Of course, Pam. Just tell me the address again. You live in Queen Street, don't you?

3 Where will Diane and her mum go this afternoon?

Woman: Diane, I'm going to the mall this afternoon and then to the museum. Would you like to come with me?

Girl: The museum? I'd rather go to the art gallery, Mum. I hear there's a great exhibition on there at the moment.

Woman: Oh, is there?

Girl: Yes, they've got an exhibition of posters of films from the last fifty years.

Woman: That sounds interesting. Let's go there instead, then.

4 How much is a ticket for an adult?

Man: How many tickets do you want?

Girl: Two, one for me and one for my mum.

Man: That's ten pounds for an adult and six for a child. So, sixteen pounds altogether, please.

Girl: Is the castle open all day?

Man: It closes at five o'clock, but you've got plenty of time to see everything. Make sure you watch the 3D video on the ground floor.
