

Eating out in Lviv

- 1 Which are your favourite places to eat in your city/town? Where do people in your city/town like to eat out? Why do they like those places?

Reading

- 2 Look at the headings and the pictures. Which of these places have you visited or would you like to visit? What do you think makes each place special? Read to find out.

Truly Ukrainian Fund "Archive"

If you would like to taste authentic Ukrainian cuisine look no further than the "Archive", where traditional varenyky are cooked to your liking. You can choose from a wide variety of fillings, including cheese, mushrooms, potato, cabbage and cherries. Of course, the restaurant serves more than varenyky. You can enjoy dishes from cuisines around Europe as well as tasty appetizers such as pickled vegetables or homemade sausages. The restaurant is laid out on two floors on which guests can eat to the sound of lively music. The friendly service, low prices and great atmosphere make the International Varenyky Fund an ideal choice for a meal out. And for your friends from abroad, the restaurant's menu is also available in English!

Have you Got a Sweet Tooth?

Lviv is known as Ukraine's coffee capital. Countless must-visit themed cafés invite you to enjoy a cup of rich, aromatic coffee in a charming atmosphere and learn something interesting about the city's history and culture.

Cukiernia (sweet shop)

With a name that means 'sweet shop', this is the perfect place for anyone who wants a sweet treat. Lots of kids come here with their parents in the early afternoons to have really delicious rolls, strudels, sundaes, pastries, cookies, milkshakes and, of course, ice cream. In the menu there is a quote from an unknown author "... only the sweet eaters are considered to be the most important members of society". That's true! Stepping out of Cukiernia you'll be in a great mood and you'll definitely want to come back here again and again.

Lviv's Chocolate Workshop

It is said that chocolate has been popular in Lviv since the Middle Ages. In the 19th century, several countries across Europe had their chocolate imported from Lviv. Today, The Chocolate Workshop offers a huge variety of chocolates that will please even the most demanding chocolate lover. At the entrance of the workshop, there is a great selection of coffee and hot chocolate flavours for you to sample. There are also milkshakes, cakes, candy and ice cream waiting for you to taste them before you enter the magic world of chocolate. On the ground floor, you can watch how everything is made and even make your own chocolates. So, how about making a toy or a souvenir out of chocolate with your own hands? The Chocolate Workshop is a must for chocolate enthusiasts of all ages.

For Something Different

Do you want your meal out in Lviv to be a whole new experience? Then Kryivka and Harbuz are the places to visit!

Kryivka

You need to use a special greeting to get into Kryivka. It's your password to enter the restaurant. A man in uniform opens the door and says "Slava Ukraini" and you should respond "Heroiam Slava". Then you're allowed inside. The café is a fascinating place built to look like a bunker and everything here is dedicated to the history of World War II.

Kryivka is one of the most visited restaurants in Europe, with 1,000,000 visitors every year. So, it's a good idea to book a table in advance. You'll be served traditional Ukrainian dishes and will be amazed by some extraordinary snacks, like fried pig's nose. It's a fun experience!

Harbuz (Pumpkin)

For those who are on the go and want to eat something healthy, delicious and reasonably priced without having to wait too long for it Harbuz is the place to go to.

The first thing that attracts visitors to this centrally located restaurant is its front door, which looks like an enormous pumpkin. The restaurant's décor of orange walls and wooden chairs and tables gives the impression that you're inside a pumpkin! At lunchtime, Harbuz is a busy place with people coming in to grab a quick bite and leave. In the evening, though, things move at a slower pace. The place turns into a pub with large TV screens showing all sorts of sports to keep sports fans happy.

3 Read the text again and mark the sentences T (true), F (false) or DS (doesn't say).

- 1 Lviv has many different kinds of coffee shops. ....
- 2 Cukiernia isn't popular with older people. ....
- 3 The Chocolate Workshop has been in operation since the 19th century. ....
- 4 The "Archive" only serves local dishes. ....
- 5 Kryivka is amongst the busiest restaurants in Europe. ....
- 6 It's quite expensive to eat at Harbuz. ....

Vocabulary

4 Fill in: décor, on the go, enthusiast, authentic, in advance, aromatic.

- 1 If you want to visit a popular restaurant, it is advisable to book a table .....
- 2 Being a true chocolate ....., my brother loved going to Lviv's Chocolate Workshop.
- 3 The ..... of Kryivka is inspired by the history of World War II.
- 4 There are many restaurants around Lviv serving ..... Ukrainian dishes.
- 5 You can get a cup of hot, ..... coffee at the Chocolate Workshop.
- 6 Dmytro was ..... and didn't have time to stay for lunch.

Speaking & Writing

5 Work in pairs. Write a quiz based on the text with ten true/false questions. Exchange your quiz with your partner and answer each other's questions. Correct the false statements.

- 1 You can only have varenyky at the "Archive" (F – the restaurant serves different dishes from around Europe.)

6 Work with a partner to collect pictures and information about a popular coffee shop or restaurants in your city/town. Make a brochure to show to the rest of the class.

CHECK THESE WORDS !

have a sweet tooth, themed café, aromatic, charming, treat, quote, mood, import, please, demanding, selection, sample, enthusiast, authentic, appetizer, pickled, laid out, ideal, respond, bunker, in advance, pumpkin, be on the go, attract, enormous, décor, pace