I love listening to music. It makes me feel happy when I'm sad, and it relaxes me when I'm tired. My favourite singer is Tina Karol. She sings mostly pop songs. She has a great voice and she's amazing on stage.

I know that the Brit Awards take place in the UK every year. It's one of the most important events in the music industry. In Ukraine, we have the Ukrainian Music Awards and the YUNA music awards. I think the performers presented are popular because they are really talented and they are known both in Ukraine and abroad.

Attending the Brit Awards was a unique experience. There were so many famous people there, I couldn't count them all! There were also hundreds of cheering fans waiting to see their favourite celebrities. I saw lots of celebrities, like Ed Sheeran, Katy Perry and Rita Ora. Ellie Goulding was there too, and she was taking selfies with fans. In fact, I'm in one of those photos! I was also lucky enough to see some great artists perform live on stage. I loved Skepta's and Robbie Williams' shows. Most of all, though, I was moved by Chris Martin's performance. This great artist sang in honour of George Michael, a legendary British singer who died the year before. It was very moving.
