- A: What do you think of the first resort/holiday destination?
B: It seems to be varied and lively, although it might be boring to lie on the beach all day. What about the second (resort)?
A: Well, it looks bustling and interesting, as well as historical, but it might be noisy and polluted.
B: That's possibly true. I suppose that both of them are exciting and entertaining in their own way.
- B A: Do you like the first resort/holiday destination?
B: Mmm ... yes. It is picturesque, with exhilarating clear air and breathtaking views. It looks isolated, though, and I expect that it could become monotonous there. How about the second (resort)?
A: It's obviously exotic, idyllic and secluded.
B: I'm sure that both places would be ideal for a relaxing holiday.

- 3 My favourite restaurant is the Scherezade. It's on the corner of my street and my wife and I go there at least once a week. The service is excellent, the staff are courteous and always attentive, the décor is understated and, most importantly, the food is divine. We usually have a sea food dish as a starter. The ceviche is a speciality of the house. There are normally three or four main courses to choose from, helpings are generous and the food is always lovingly presented. What I like most about Scherezade are their mouth-watering desserts which, because we are regulars, are often on the house.

- 2 1 A: I know we can't afford it, but all the same, I'd love a holiday in the sun.
 B: So would I, but we need to be realistic.
 2 A: I know you don't like Adrian, but I'll say this for him, he's a hard worker.
 B: He certainly is that.
 3 A: From what I can gather, it'll be a long strike.
 B: Oh no! Not again!
 4 A: You want to change your course again? You'll have a job persuading your tutor to let you.
 B: Do you think so?
 5 A: Surely you're not leaving already? You've only just arrived.
 B: I'm sorry but I've got to get up very early tomorrow morning.
 6 A: To be perfectly honest, I don't care if Jim knows or not.
 B: Well, that's all right, then.
 7 A: No wonder you're angry. I think you should speak to the manager.
 B: I think I will.
 8 A: He struck me as a bit of a fraud.
 B: I thought so too.
 9 A: By the sound of it, the people next door are getting ready for a party.
 B: Oh no! Not another one!
 10 A: How come you knew already?
 B: Because she told me.
 11 A: He's lying. I know for a fact that he has never been bungee jumping.
 B: Hasn't he?
 12 A: I don't know about you but I could do with a holiday.
 B: You can say that again!

- 13 A: It's all very well for you to dance the night away. You don't have to get up at five o'clock tomorrow morning.
 B: That's true.
 14 A: Emigrating might sound like a good idea but mark my words, you'll regret it.
 B: Perhaps.
 15 A: I know you've been badly treated but rest assured, I'll make it up to you.
 B: Thank you.
 16 A: Whatever possessed you to give up such a good job and sail round the world?
 B: Oh I don't know. I just felt like it.
 17 A: Where on earth did we leave the car?
 B: Somewhere round here, I think.
 18 A: With all due respect, I feel that we should take a vote on it.
 B: Yes, perhaps we should.
 19 A: As far as I know, he still wants to buy a new car.
 B: Oh, so he hasn't bought one yet then?
 20 A: I was led to believe that they were emigrating to Australia.
 B: They may have changed their mind.
 21 A: Let's face it, he's not that good an actor.
 B: No, but he's got a good singing voice.

3 Picture 1: blizzard

There has been a blizzard. The heavy snow has made driving conditions difficult and the cars have turned the snow into slush. It must be freezing cold, a spell of bad weather.

Picture 2: drought

This picture shows a drought. There has been little or no rain and the earth is cracked and dry. It must be baking or boiling hot.

Picture 3: snowdrift

Here we see a snowdrift. A mass of snow has been pushed by strong winds against a boat. It must be freezing cold.

Picture 4: balmy

It is a balmy day, pleasantly warm, with gentle breezes and clouds in the sky. Some of the clouds look dark though, so it may rain later on.
